The proposed dividend do not jeopardise the company’s ability to make the investments deemed necessary. The company’s financial position does not give rise to any other conclusion than that the company is able to continue operating, and that the company is expected to fulfil its obligations in the short and long term. In addition to the assessment of the company’s consolidation requirements and liquidity, the Board also took into account all other known circumstances that may have significance for the financial position of the company. With reference to the above, the Board considers that the proposed dividend is justifiable considering the requirements which the type of operations, size and risks of the company and the group place on the size of the company and the group’s equity, consolidation requirements, liquidity and position in general.
